

ADOPTED TEMPORARY REGULATION OF THE LABOR COMMISSIONER
LCB File No. T004-07
April 10, 2007

EXPLANATION- Matter that is italicized is new; matter in brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § § 1-10; Article 15, Section 16, the constitution of the State of Nevada, NRS 607.110, NRS 607.160.

Section 1. Chapter 608 of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 9, inclusive, of this regulation.

Sec. 2. Definition of minimum wage tiers.

- 1. The lower tier is from $5.15 to $6.14 per hour for employees who offered qualified health insurance benefits.*
- 2. The upper tier is $6.15 per hour for employees who are not offered qualified health benefits.*
- 3. An employer must pay the upper tier rate unless the employee qualifies for the lower tier rate.*
- 4. These rates may change based on the annual adjustments as set forth in Article 15, Section 16 of the Constitution of Nevada.*

Sec. 3. Applicability of Minimum Wage.

- 1. The minimum wage applies to all employees in Nevada.*
- 2. The only exceptions to the minimum wage are*
 - (a) Persons under the age of 18; or*
 - (b) Persons employed by a nonprofit organization for after school or summer employment; or*
 - (c) Persons employed as trainees for a period not longer than ninety (90) days as interpreted by the U. S. Department of Labor pursuant to Section 6(g) of the Fair Labor Standards Act; or*
 - (d) Persons employed under a valid collective bargaining agreement where Article 15, Section 16 of the Nevada Constitution relating to minimum wage, tip credit or other provisions included therein have been waived in clear and unambiguous terms.*
- 3. There is no distinction between full-time, permanent, part-time, probationary, or temporary employees.*

Sec. 4. In order to qualify for the lower minimum wage tier an employer must comply with all of the following:

- 1. Qualified health insurance coverage must be made available to the employee and the employee's dependents, if any. For the purposes of this section, qualified health insurance coverage is "available to the employee and employee's dependents" when an employer contracts for or otherwise maintains qualified health insurance for the class of employees of which the employee is a member, subject*

- only to fulfillment of the conditions required to complete the coverage which are applicable to all similarly-situated employees within this class, unless the waiting period exceeds six months; and*
- 2. The employee's share of the cost of the premium cannot exceed 10% of the employee's gross taxable income attributable to the employer as defined under the Internal Revenue Code;*
 - (a) "Gross Taxable Income" attributable to the employer means the amount specified on the employee's W-2 issued by the employer and includes tips, bonuses or other compensation as required for purposes of federal individual income tax.*
 - (b) To determine whether the employee's share of the premium does not exceed 10% of the employee's gross taxable income, the employer may:*
 - I. For an employee for whom the employer has issued a W-2 for the immediately preceding year, divide the gross taxable income from the employer into the projected employee's share of the premiums for qualified health insurance for the current year;*
 - II. For an employee for which the employer has not issued a W-2 and has payroll information for the four prior quarters, divide the combined total of gross taxable income normally calculated from this payroll information from these four quarters into the projected employee's share of the premiums for qualified health insurance for these four quarters;*
 - III. For an employee for which there is less than an aggregate year of payroll information, the employer shall*
 - 1) take the total payroll information available for the employee determine the combined total of gross taxable income normally calculated from this payroll information; and*
 - 2) After dividing it by the number of weeks it represents and multiplying it by 52, divide this annualized number into the projected employee's share of the premiums for qualified health insurance for the current year;*
 - IV. For a new employee, promoted employee, or an employee who turns eighteen years of age during employment, the employer shall wait until the employee has completed two normal payroll periods and then utilize this payroll information as set forth in subsection 3 above relating to an employee for which there is less than a complete year of employment; and*
 - 3. Offers a health benefit plan that meets one of the following requirements:*
 - (a) The plan covers only those categories of health care expenses that are generally deductible by employees on their individual federal income tax returns pursuant to the provisions of 26*

- U.S.C. Sec. 213 and any federal regulations relating thereto, if those expenses had been borne directly by those employees; or*
- (b) Provides health benefits pursuant to a Taft-Hartley trust which:*
- I. Is formed pursuant to 29 U.S.C. Sec. 186(c)(5); and*
 - II. Qualifies as an employee welfare benefit plan under the Internal Revenue Service guidelines; or*
- (c) Is a qualified employee welfare benefit plan pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. Sec. 1001 et seq.*

Sec. 5. An employer may decide to pay the maximum wage rate for minimum wage currently applicable in lieu of making any determination under this regulation that the employee may be paid the lower minimum wage rate.

Sec. 6. If a determination is made that the employee's share of the premium does not exceed 10% of the employee's gross taxable income from the employer, the employer may pay the employee through the end of the calendar year for which the determination has been made either:

- 1. The lowest minimum wage rate currently applicable; or*
- 2. Any amount within the lower minimum wage tier currently applicable.*

Sec. 7. If an employee declines coverage under a qualified health insurance plan offered by the employer, the employer must document that the employee has declined coverage. Declining coverage may not be a term or condition of employment.

Sec. 8. If an employer offers qualified health insurance with a waiting period of no more than 6 months, the employee may be paid at the lower tier wage rate. If an employer does not offer a qualified health insurance plan or the health benefit plan is not available or the health benefit plan is not provided within 6 months of employment, the employee must be paid the upper tier wage rate until such time as the employee becomes eligible and is offered coverage or when the insurance becomes effective. The term of the waiting period may be modified in a bona fide collective bargaining agreement, but only if the modification is explicitly set forth in such agreement in clear and unambiguous terms.

Sec. 9. For the purposes of complying with the daily overtime provisions of NRS 608.018 (1), an employer shall pay overtime based on the minimum wage tier for which that employee is qualified.

Sec. 10. NAC 608.110 is hereby repealed

[NAC 608.110 Minimum wage. (NRS 608.250) The minimum wage for an employee in private employment who:

- 1. Is 18 years of age or older is $5.15 per hour.
